"TECHTOPIA"

Dubbed "Techtopia" by CNBC, the "South Coast" of Santa Barbara County is loaded with internet and tech companies—ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to start-ups—many of which have spun out of UCSB research teams. Google, Amazon, Sonos, LinkedIn, and Procore have all established large "creative" offices and/or research labs in the area. The emerging tech scene is also attracting founders and entrepreneurs from Los Angeles and San Francisco. This surge of tech employees adds dynamism and economic vitality an area already blessed with a warm climate and natural beauty.

EDUCATED, TECH-INCLINED EMPLOYEE POOL

Boasting 6 nobel laureates on faculty and ranked eighth in the world for its impact on the sciences,* UCSB is integral to the Santa Barbara community and its largest employer. UCSB offers a unique Technology Management Program (TMP) certificate, and many graduates with STEM degrees stay to work in the area.

* Ranked #8 of 750 universities worldwide in 2014 by the Centre for Science and Technology Studies of Leiden University.

THE QUANTUM BUMP

In 2019, UCSB was awarded a National Science Foundation grant to create the nation's first "quantum foundry" to research quantum technology. Soon after, Google's research lab near the university reached the elusive "quantum supremacy," the ability of a quantum processor to perform a complex computation much, much faster than any existing supercomputer. This breakthrough has further solidified Santa Barbara as a vital hub of research and technology.
