BROKER PROFILE

EXPERIENCE

Dylan Ward has been actively involved in the leasing and development of commercial real estate since 2006. A native of Santa Barbara, Dylan combines local knowledge with business and investment savvy earned managing large-scale commercial projects throughout California. He has completed more than 205 transactions on the South Coast since the beginning of 2015, with a combined value over $84 million.

Prior to joining Hayes Commercial Group, Dylan focused on the development and repositioning of retail properties throughout California as a project manager with Watt Companies and MPA, Inc. Dylan's background in commercial real estate development and construction management provides him with a unique ability to recognize development and repositioning opportunities.

While he enjoyed the challenges and successes of completing complex projects with firms in the Los Angeles area, Dylan missed the unique lifestyle of his hometown and moved back to Santa Barbara in 2014.
